

Chasing June

Forever Finley Short Story #7: A tale that explores the frightening (and often wonderful) things that can happen after disturbing the dust that has settled across life as its always been. Annie Ames returns to her childhood hometown to begin a project with her lifelong friend, Justin: a book documenting the romantic folklore surrounding the legend of Amos Hargrove, the town founder. But no one likes the fact that shes disturbing the dustrifling through old memories and a more than century-old legend. When Annie visits Mary, the towns oldest resident, she opens an old trunk and along with a treasured antique wedding shawl, discovers life-altering truths about her feelings for her closest friend and about the legend of Amos Hargrove and his sweetheart, Finley. Chasing June is part of the Forever Finley Short Story Cycle, a series of stand-alone short stories releasing once a month throughout 2016. Previous releases in the cycle include: Come Decmeber, January Thaw, Forget February, Dearest March, Aprils Promise, and Mayday Mayday Mayday.
