

Legends and Lore: An Anthology of Mythic Proportions

Delve into myth and legend, where the Fates force post-modern man into a world of the unknown world long since dismissed as ignorant superstition. The Brother-Sister Fable by Alyson Grauer: a young boy disappears into a realm where only his sister can follow. Faelad by Sarah Hunter Hyatt: Claire Whitaker didn't even know she was Irish, let alone The Morrigan, the goddess of war. By Skyfall by Emma Michaels: a mer-couple from Atlantis find themselves in the middle of a human murder investigation. Charons Obol by R. M. Ridley: Jonathan Alvey didn't believe in gods, until he helps a lost child find her all-powerful parents. Peradventure by Sarah Seeley: a jinni must choose between the woman he loves and destroying the city that persecuted her. Natural Order by Lance Schonberg: when Carlos Vasquez is kidnapped, he discovers powers within himself to change the world. Two Spoons by Danielle E. Shipley: A little girl's soul meets its match in the family diner's most mysterious patron. Grail Days by A. F. Stewart: Living forever has its drawbacks, especially when you spend it clearing away the messes of other immortals. Downward Mobility by M. K. Wiseman: they say love conquers all, but can it save a Valkyrie when she breaks all the rules?
