

Strictly for Seniors

My book is really non-fiction with a bit of bullshit thrown in for good luck. Its about how I grew up in the forties and fifties in short-story format for readers who cant take their face out of Facebook. It may appeal to some older folks, too. It takes you into my world, how I grew up as a child, battled my demons and found happiness on Delancey Street in West Philadelphia. The stories attempt to answer burning questions like, Could the kids of today survive in that time or would they run home to Mommy? Was sex treated the same way? Would you be a schmuck or a hero on Delancey Street? Pastor Bob Bremer, Indiana says, This book as well as the Preview is a must read for all Christians. Sid has captured the best and the worst of an era long gone by. The Reverend, Ladd K. Harris, Episcopal Priest retired, comments, This book captures the authors early life in Philadelphia, Pa. with wit, charm, creativity and realism and gives you some good laughs..
