

The Nightmare Nanny and Other Stories

In his debut collection of fantastical short stories, Paul Carey takes us from the trials and tribulations of 18th Century writer Daniel Defoe as he spends an afternoon in the pillory, to the far future, where a sentient giant spider meets her future self and is given the chance of an honorable death. Along the way a womans soul is trapped in her portrait, a scientist tries a radical new approach to cure cancer and everyone on Earth starts to disappear. Funny, disturbing and often thought provoking fifteen short stories.
